

of its condition or affairs with the Clerk of any Court of this State, or with the State Tax Commissioner, or with any other officer or official of this State than the Insurance Commissioner, the filing of the same with the Insurance Commissioner shall be a full compliance with every such requirement, and all Acts and parts of Acts, whether general or special, inconsistent with any provision of Section 379, Section 380 or Section 381, are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

Turnpike, Plank Road and Passenger Railway Companies.

382.

Turnpikes can claim no more protection from the state than passenger railway companies; the state affords no special protection to a turnpike company from interference with its tolls, nor does it prohibit a person from building a road which may affect the turnpike. The policy of the state is to encourage competition. Hagerstown Turnpike Co. v. Evers, 130 Md. 13.

383.

This section referred to in construing article 91, section 34 et seq.—see notes to section 34. United Rys. & Elec. Co. v. State Rds. Com., 123 Md. 585.

Condemnation of Property by Corporations.

399.

This section et seq. referred to in deciding that article 91, sections 34 and 63, so far as they confer the power and regulate the procedure of condemnation, were not repealed by the adoption of article 33A of the code, particularly in view of section 14 of article 33A. Koehler v. State Rds. Com., 125 Md. 446.

Police.

1918, ch. 217.

411A. The provisions of the foregoing Sections 406 to 411, inclusive, of this Article shall be extended to and may be availed of by any corporation, firm or individual maintaining or operating in this State any factory, warehouse, storage house, manufactory, printing or publishing establishment, mechanical or mercantile establishment, or any plant of any kind, or any mine, colliery or quarry, or any electric railway, water, sewerage, gas, electric light, power, transmission, heating, refrigerating, telephone, telegraph or other public service property or properties; and all the provisions of the said sections, including those which relate to the appointment, commissioning, oath, authority, powers, compensation and termination of service of the policemen referred to in said sections, shall in all respects be applicable to policemen appointed for any of the corporations, firms or individuals mentioned in this section; provided, that any such corporation, firms or individual shall be liable for the wrongful or negligent act of any such policeman.
